Director's Notes by Molly Harvey

Can you believe it is already July? Before we know it, we will be planning for our Craft and Vendor Show! It has been so busy here at the Ripley Library, so I am going to keep this short and sweet. Be sure to check out all the amazing programming we have going on! Also make sure you get outside and read a good book under a big old tree and really enjoy this beautiful summer!

See you at the Ripley Library friends!

Best Friend's Report (BFF)

It's been a while since we've updated you on what the Best Friend's Fund has been doing. We are the fund-raising branch of the library. What do we do with the money we raise? The Friends have agreed to the following expenditures:

A New Storage Shed. If you haven't noticed, the one at the back of the library building is falling apart. Water leaks have destroyed some of the things stored there. Therefore, the Friends have approved the purchase of a new shed. Coming soon!

Summer Reading Program. Every year the library organizes a fun-packed Summer Reading Program for kids and adults. The Friends provide funding to purchase crafts, books, programs and speakers, and prizes. If you haven't participated in the past, give it a try. It's fun!

Two Card Tables. Two different groups of card players use our library and have requested card tables. The Friends are paying for these tables.

6' Tables: The library is always in need of table top space, so The Friends have agreed to the purchase of new tables.

Shelving in the Basement. All those decorations you see throughout the year have to be put somewhere. Most of them are stored in totes in the basement. Rather than having the totes lying on the floor, we are having shelves put in.

Computer chairs: Several chairs were purchased in the last year, but they wear out, so two new ones were purchased recently.

Coffee Machine: Making an entire pot of coffee to be thrown out every evening is a waste. A one-cup Keurig coffee maker makes sense. Stephanie has been using her personal one from home but we have now approved the purchase of a multipurpose Keurig for use at the library. Bring your own pods or use the ones we have here!

The Best Friends are an important part of our library. Most of what we do is behind the scenes and the public never sees it. Be assured, we are raising funds throughout the year to make this the best possible library it can be. Come join us!

Local History Book Review

by Michelle Henry, Research Historian

Celoron Park on Chautauqua Lake, by Thomas Goodwin, 2009, Bookworm Printing.

Chautauqua Lake became a popular destination for summer tourists in the 1870s, as folks in surrounding cities like Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Buffalo, and Chicago sought a place to get away from the city heat and congestion. The county was billed as a healthy recreational destination, and large hotels were built all around Chautauqua lake to accommodate visitors.

This book, Celoron on Chautauqua Lake, focuses on the development of trolley parks, particularly Celoron Park, built along trolley lines at the end of the 19th century. The trolley parks were owned by trolley companies to attract both summer tourists and local families. The trolley parks offered wooded groves, picnic pavilions, bathing (i.e. swimming), boat rides, and special events like dances and musical performances. Bigger rides such as roller coasters and Ferris wheels became hugely popular.

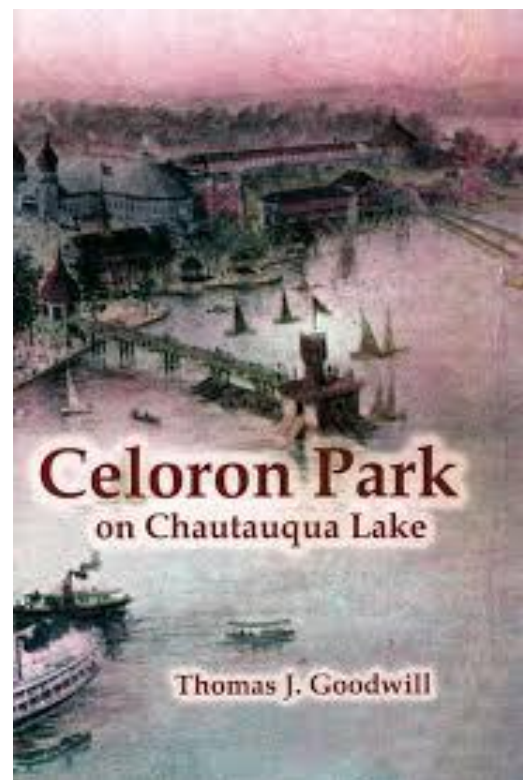

The largest trolley park in Chautauqua County was Celoron Park, located on the lake in Celoron. It was owned by the Jamestown Street Railway Company, and developed into a large amusement park with rides, a zoo, concession stands, a theater, and much more. The author has compiled an extensive history of the park, its owners, and the numerous rides that attracted hundreds of thousands of visitors each summer. Included in the volume are many photos and several maps of the park.

The book is very informative, especially to those of us who are too young to remember the park in its heyday. Goodwin tells about the growth and development of the park, the numerous devastating fires that destroyed some of the large structures, and the eventual demise of the attraction as automobiles replaced trolleys and the expense of maintaining the structures and rides was too great for our short summer season.

It is fascinating to read this book and to realize just how large the park was, with buildings that could hold thousands of visitors, and with acres of rides and concessions. The author did a good job compiling this history and portraying how residents and visitors found summertime entertainment in Chautauqua County over 100 years ago.

Much of Goodwin's material for this publication came from the Fenton History Center in Jamestown which has a large archival collection relating to Celoron Park.

From the Archives

The Ripley Library contains a wealth of information dating back to our humble beginnings in 1937 and prior. Each month we will reprint articles or stories about the library, including old photographs. We hope that someone, somewhere will be able to identify some of the people and places.

If you have a particular interest in something from the past, let us know. The library has a treasure trove of history.

The hometown newspaper, The Ripley Review, had this article from August 5, 1937 on the front page about the opening of our library.

Archives, documents, old photos and a comfy reading room.

From August 5, 1937 Ripley Review

RIPLEY LIBRARY TO OPEN

Monday of Next Week is Date, with Tea Served from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The official opening for the Ripley Library is set for Monday, August 9, and the library committee announces it will serve tea on that day from 3 to 5 o'clock, at which time all persons interested are invited to come and inspect the new library in the bank building and also partake of tea served by the committee on the bank lawn. A permanent register will be kept of all first day visitors.

The following regulations will govern the loaning of books from the library:

Books may be borrowed for two weeks with the privilege of renewing for two weeks longer.

New and popular books will be limited to one week.

Magazines may be taken for a period of three days.

A fine of two cents per day will be charged for books overdue.

Adults may borrow two books at one time. Children may borrow one book at a time.

Library hours will be as follows:

Monday – 3 to 5 p.m.

Tuesday – 3 to 6 p.m.

Wednesday – 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

Thursday – 3 to 5 p.m.

Friday – 3 to 5 p.m.

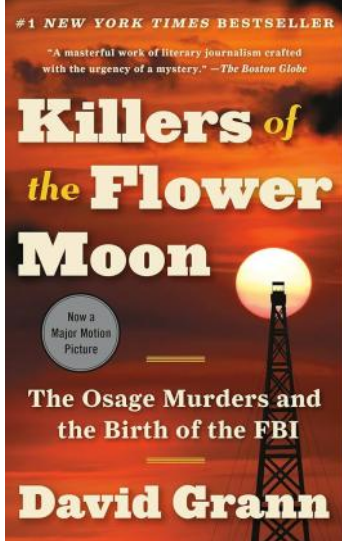

Saturday – 2 to 5 p.m.

The library is free to all and the people are urged to make use of these books. At present there are about 1200 books on the shelves and later it is expected that we will have 1000 more. The assortment of books is exceptionally good, many of them published within the last few years.

The FREE Table

If you'd like to donate nonperishable items or personal items (like toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, etc.), you can put them on the FREE Table near the back door.

If you need something from the FREE Table, feel free to take it. No questions asked.

Ripley Public Library Is a Safe Place Location

What is a Safe Place Location, you might ask? A Safe Place works with the Safe House out of Jamestown and is part of Chautauqua Opportunities, Inc. This is a program for runaway or homeless youth under the age of 18. If this young person needs help, all they have to do is enter the facility displaying the yellow sign that reads SAFE PLACE. They let someone in charge know they need help.
